Guidelines for Submissions

Submissions are welcomed from scientists, scholars, and practitioners in urban hybridization, theoretic fields of architecture, urban & landscape design and other fields concerning the hybridization of human spaces;
We are interested in papers, projects, case studies...

Usually the request for publication of a specific issue of the journal is done by a call for papers.

It is possible to send us texts, pict. videos etc. outside of the calls for papers:

- Videoclips uploaded on Youtube: please submit us the embed code.

- Research Papers: once accepted by our Scientific Board, individual papers will be published online in the "Miscellanea" section. Papers submitted must be original and not be under consideration for publication elsewhere. Articles should be approximately 10,000 characters (blank spaces included);

Please send us in separate files:

- Text of the paper ,sources, quotes. The preferred format for submission of texts is "plain text" or "rich text format", using the .txt .rtf suffixes.

- Pictures (.jpg low resolution); Images may be submitted electronically as .jpg files low size. One image = 1 file;

- Captions of pictures, and other visual materials accompanying text (.txt .rtf);

- Name and address (including e-mail address) of Author(s) and a brief biography of author(s), including degrees, areas of expertise or study, etc.

Please no MS Word formatting.

Rules: APA rules. Please send texts in conformity with the standards of the American Psychological Society.
